

As my representative, I strongly urge you to do whatever needs to be done to stop this media deregulation. We are already seeing the terrifying result of some biased news casting. People need an unbiased source of information to make intelligent decisions for this country's political choices. Please stop the potentially disastrous deregulation of the media.